Ensure compliance and empower your team with the Assisted Living Nurse Delegation Training that meets Iowa Assisted Living Regulation 481-69.29(6). Required for all new delegating nurses hired after January 1, 2010, this course provides 6.75 hours of essential training on Iowa rules and regulations governing assisted living. Each program must have at least one delegating nurse complete the training, and if there are multiple delegating nurses, the trained nurse will be responsible for sharing their knowledge of the rules with the others.

This in-person training offers a focused, hands-on learning experience, equipping delegating nurses with the tools and understanding they need to lead confidently and meet state standards.
